NOTE: Keeping of pet or animal requires consent of management, payment of applicable fees/deposits, and execution of Pet/Animal Addendum. In specific circumstances, certain animals may be kept for limited purposes pursuant to Landlord's policies, such as animals used for individuals with disabilities and official police dogs. For further details, please refer to Landlord's pet and community policies.

Disclosures

The Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended by the Fair Housing Act Amendments of 1988, prohibits discrimination in housing based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, handicap, or familial status. The management of this property is committed to complying with the letter and spirit of the laws which provide an equal housing opportunity to all. The federal agency which administers compliance with the fair housing laws is the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Application Fee

I hereby agree, in the event of the approval of this application, to execute a lease in accordance with the terms set forth in this rental application and my rental liability shall commence pursuant to the terms of the lease. I agree that the $50.00 application fee, which is comprised of $11.75 to cover Landlord's out-of-pockets costs associated with processing the application and $33.25 to cover Landlord's administrative and overhead costs allocable to processing of the application, accompanying this application shall be retained by Landlord to cover Landlord's various costs of evaluating my application, whether or not Landlord approves my application, or whether or not I sign a lease or take possession of an apartment home, and I agree to this amount being retained by Landlord as a reasonable estimate of the actual costs to Landlord to evaluate my application. (I also do not believe the amount of this application fee is an unfair trade practice). I understand that the application fees accompanying this application are non-refundable after I execute this application and will not be applied against the security deposit or any rent payable pursuant to the lease. Landlord and/or agent for Landlord reserve the right to reject this application and to refuse possession of the below-mentioned accommodation except for prohibitions under Disclosures above.

Holding Fee

In addition to the foregoing application fee, I agree that the $199.00 holding fee accompanying this application shall be retained by Landlord to hold the unit identified on page three of this application for occupancy by me upon approval of this application and execution of a lease. If my application is rejected for any reason other than the falsification of information by me, the holding fee shall be refunded to me. If my application is accepted, but I notify Landlord that I do not desire to lease the unit within 2 days after Landlord notifies me in person or by telephone that my application has been accepted (or 5 days after Landlord notifies me by mail of acceptance), then Landlord will refund the holding fee to me. Otherwise, Landlord shall be entitled to retain the holding fee to cover Landlord's various costs of holding such unit for me, and I agree to this amount being retained by Landlord as a reasonable estimate of the actual costs to Landlord to hold the unit for my occupancy. (I also do not believe the amount of this holding fee is an unfair trade practice). I understand that if I occupy the unit, the holding fee will be applied against the security deposit, and, if any amount of the holding fee exceeds the amount of the security deposit, such excess shall be applied against the rent payable pursuant to the lease. If Landlord returns the holding fee to me, Landlord may do so by one check delivered to only one applicant for the unit.

Administrative Fee

In addition to the foregoing application fee and holding fee, I agree that the $50.00 administrative fee accompanying this application shall be retained by Landlord to cover Landlord's various costs of processing my occupancy of the unit. If my application is rejected for any reason other than the falsification of information by me, the administrative fee shall be refunded to me. If my application is accepted, but I notify Landlord that I do not desire to lease the unit within 2 days after Landlord notifies me in person or by telephone that my application has been accepted (or 5 days after Landlord notifies me by mail of acceptance), then Landlord will refund the administrative fee to me. Otherwise, Landlord shall be entitled to retain the administrative fee to cover Landlord's various costs of processing such unit for occupancy by me, and I agree to this amount being retained by Landlord as a reasonable estimate of the actual costs to Landlord to process such unit for my occupancy. (I also do not believe the amount of this administrative fee is an unfair trade practice). I understand that if I occupy the unit, the administrative fee will not be applied against the security deposit or any rent payable pursuant to the lease, but rather shall be retained by Landlord for the costs of processing my application. If Landlord returns the administrative fee then, at the option of Landlord, Landlord may do so by one check payable and delivered to any applicant or one check jointly payable to all applicants but delivered to only one applicant for the unit.

Any unanswered "yes" or "no" question will result in the denial of your application.

Have you ever been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor?

_____ Yes                      _____ No

Have you ever been charged with or received adjudication withheld for a felony or misdemeanor within the past 7 years?

_____ Yes                      _____ No

Are you or any member of your household a Specially Designated National or other Blocked Person designated by the United States government as a person who commits or supports terrorism or is involved in international narcotics trafficking?

_____ Yes                      _____ No

If yes to any of the above questions, please explain, providing the location, date and nature of the offense:

I have read the foregoing, certify that the information herein is TRUE and CORRECT, that this application is submitted for the purpose of inducing approval of this application on my behalf.

By signing this application, I authorize Landlord or agent for Landlord to verify any information contained herein. Any "yes" response to the personal and criminal history questions above, or any false statement on the application, may lead to the rejection of my application and/or immediate termination of my lease. Further, if I subsequently am involved in conduct which would result in a "yes" response to any of the questions set forth above (even after I sign the lease and take possession of the apartment home), I understand that Landlord may terminate the Lease.

❑ Consent to Consumer Report and Background Check

This is to inform applicant that, as part of Landlord's procedure for processing applicant's application, an Investigative Consumer Report may be prepared whereby information is obtained through personal interviews with applicant's landlord, employer, or others with whom applicant is acquainted. This also is to inform applicant that, as also set forth in the lease applicant will execute if applicant's application is approved by Landlord, similar Investigative Consumer Reports may be prepared in the future after applicant has executed the lease and become a resident or has vacated the property which is the subject of this agreement. These inquiries include information as to applicant's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, mode of living and credit report. The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act requires Landlord to provide to applicant additional information about the nature and scope of the investigation if applicant provides Landlord with a written request within a reasonable time. Landlord has attached a summary of applicant's rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

I, _____, the undersigned applicant authorize Adagio Apartments, LLC, or its agent, attorney or assign to order and review one or more consumer reports relating to me (including, but not limited to, credit history, rental history (including with other properties owned by property owners affiliated with Landlord), and criminal history). I further authorize Adagio Apartments, LLC, its agent, attorney or assign to order or prepare, and review, investigative consumer reports relating to me. I understand and authorize Adagio Apartments, LLC, its agent, attorney or assign to continue to obtain or prepare consumer reports and investigative consumer reports on me both during the duration of any lease or agreement I may enter into as a result of this application and at any time thereafter, including for the purposes of collection of amounts I may owe under any lease or other agreement. I further authorize and direct all employers, financial institutions, banks, creditors, residential managers/landlords to release any and all information relating to me to Adagio Apartments, LLC or its agent, attorney or assign. I acknowledge that I have received a summary of my rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act.

I further understand and authorize Adagio Apartments, LLC to obtain and use consumer report information relating to me (including, but not limited to, a credit score) for the purpose of conducting research into statistical credit models and evaluating the performance of various scoring models and sources of consumer reporting information, including, but not limited to, criminal conviction and skip tracing/eviction databases.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) is designed to promote accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of every "consumer reporting agency" (CRA). Most CRAs are credit bureaus that gather and sell information about you -- such as if you pay your bills on time or have filed bankruptcy -- to creditors, employers, landlords, and other businesses. You can find the complete text of the FCRA, 15 U.S.C. 1681-1681u, at the Federal Trade Commission's web site (<http://www.ftc.gov>). The FCRA gives you specific rights, as outlined below. You may have additional rights under state law. You may contact a state or local consumer protection agency or a state attorney general to learn those rights.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses information from a CRA to take action against you -- such as denying an application for credit, insurance, or employment -- must tell you, and give you the name, address, and phone number of the CRA that provided the consumer report.
- You can find out what is in your file. At your request, a CRA must give you the information in your file, and a list of everyone who has requested it recently. There is no charge for the report if a person has taken action against you because of information supplied by the CRA, if you request the report within 60 days of receiving notice of the action. You also are entitled to one free report every twelve months upon request if you certify that (1) you are unemployed and plan to seek employment within 60 days, (2) you are on welfare, or (3) your report is inaccurate due to fraud. Otherwise, a CRA may charge you up to eight dollars.
- You can dispute inaccurate information with the CRA. If you tell a CRA that your file contains inaccurate information, the CRA must investigate the items (usually within 30 days) by presenting to its information source all relevant evidence you submit, unless your dispute is frivolous. The source must review your evidence and report its findings to the CRA. (The source also must advise national CRAs -- to which it has provided the data -- of any error.) The CRA must give you a written report of the investigation, and a copy of your report if the investigation results in any change. If the CRA's investigation does not resolve the dispute, you may add a brief statement to your file. The CRA must normally include a summary of your statement in future reports. If an item is deleted or a dispute statement is filed, you may ask that anyone who has recently received your report be notified of the change.
- Inaccurate information must be corrected or deleted. A CRA must remove or correct inaccurate or unverified information from its files, usually within 30 days after you dispute it. However, the CRA is not required to remove accurate data from your file unless it is outdated (as described below) or cannot be verified. If your dispute results in any change to your report, the CRA cannot reinsert into your file a disputed item unless the information source verifies its accuracy and completeness. In addition, the CRA must give you a written notice telling you it has reinserted the item. The notice must include the name, address and phone number of the information source.
- You can dispute inaccurate items with the source of the information. If you tell anyone -- such as a creditor who reports to a CRA -- that you dispute an item, they may not then report the information to a CRA without including a notice of your dispute. In addition, once you've notified the source of the error in writing, it may not continue to report the information if it is, in fact, an error.
- Outdated information may not be reported. In most cases, a CRA may not report negative information that is more than seven years old; ten years for bankruptcies.
- Access to your file is limited. A CRA may provide information about you only to people with a need recognized by the FCRA -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business.
- Your consent is required for reports that are provided to employers, or reports that contain medical information. A CRA may not give out information about you to your employer, or prospective employer, without your written consent. A CRA may not report medical information about you to creditors, insurers, or employers without your permission.
- You may choose to exclude your name from CRA lists for unsolicited credit and insurance offers. Creditors and insurers may use file information as the basis for sending you unsolicited offers of credit or insurance. Such offers must include a toll-free phone number for you to call if you want your name and address removed from future lists. If you call, you must be kept off the lists for two years. If you request, complete, and return the CRA form provided for this purpose, you must be taken off the lists indefinitely.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a CRA, a user or (in some cases) a provider of CRA data, violates the FCRA, you may sue them in state or federal court.

The FCRA gives several different federal agencies authority to enforce the FCRA:
